

The winner of the Building Inclusion in the Community Award goes to Keith Elder.

A long-time volunteer, Keith Elder has dedicated over 15 years to connecting people with environmental issues as Chair of Wild about Perton and continues to promote the value of volunteering through his work with Perton Parish Council, Support Staffordshire, and Friends of Perton Library. Most notably, Keith has played a key role in establishing the "Men in Sheds" group, fostering social connections, practical work, and mental well-being for men in the community. His commitment to inclusion and community well-being is truly inspiring.
